THE Welcome Officers' Meeting

(Y.W.C.A. Hall, Toronto, June 12th),

Representative Officers Extend a Welcome on Behalf of their Comrades.

THE COMMISSIONER

IN THE POWER OF GOD

SWEEP'S ALL BEFORE HER.

The Spirit of Life and Liberty Falls on the Race—Hearts are Melted and Many Tears Flow.

REPORTED BY STAFF-CAPT. SOUTHAALL.

A. M. SESSION.

THE power and glory of the spirit which accompanied the two meetings reported below can scarcely be described. Although the utmost liberty and faithfulness existed, so that no Council could have been freer, yet the mighty power of the Lord was above all. Our dear Commissioner was full of the Holy Ghost and was carried out in his speaking with such power that our hearts were completely melted and many wept. Oh, it was a time long to be remembered, and great things were accomplished. Said an officer, "It is many a long year since I was broken up like this, and he only echoed the thought of many another."

EDITOR.

A PRELIMINARY prayer meeting of a red-hot character was in full swing as we ascended the steps of the Y. W. C. A. Hall. Nothing was more apparent than the feeling of eager desire on the part of that splendid crowd of men and women—Salvation Army Officers. Moreover that desire "to be filled" soon obtained its answer according to the promise given to those earnest enough to "hunger and thirst."

It seemed that the Commissioner's remarks at the welcome meeting the night previous had filled the officers with keen anticipation of what might be expected to follow on this, the first day of Council with her Canadian and American staff and field Commanders. Our genial and worthy (and now) Chief Secretary seemed to catch the sentiment of the meeting, judging by the song selected—"I'm a Salvation Soldier forever for Jesus."

Ample justice having been done to the song, Major Sharp, in earnest prayer directed our minds to the Source of that power abundantly manifest, even in that room in the miraculous change in the lives of many present.

THE COMMISSIONER.

amid deafening and prolonged applause, rose to give out the old war song, "Gird on the Armour." She prefaced this with a comment on our singing, "still it was not to be wondered at seeing what beautiful singers they had had in their old leaders," and naively backed this up with the expression, "You have had the nightingales, now you have the crow."

What was of the opinion it would be difficult to find the Commissioner stuck by any song all the same.

BRIGADIER MARGETTS.

as representative of the West Ontario Province, neatly brought out the point that this was a new regime, and that henceforth we had now a "Queen" to rule over us.

"Long be the Queen remembered through the hall." It was scarcely necessary to use the familiar term, "God save the Queen," as that prayer had been answered many a year since in the Commissioner's experience.

BRIGADIER SCOTT

gave a splendid report of his charge, and ably represented the Eastern Province. The Commissioner's noble attitude in the American difficulty had been splendidly commended in the press, and his officers had read with admiration of her fixed purpose to defend and uphold the glorious principles of the Army. They already loved her, and were anxious to abide by it in a loyal and enthusiastic welcome to the East.

STAFF-CAPTAIN MINNICK

introduced a sweet and new tune with the old song, "Christ for me." We prophesy it is destined to "catch on," and not only that, but coming from hearts filled with love, will help many a soul to the Saviour. The Staff-Captain's remarks were of the old style, simple, and yet forcible. He jumped into the hearts of his comrades at one leap.

MAJOR COMPLIN

is all there when wanted. His song, "What a difference in the morning," produced a profound effect, almost as much so as some of the incidents suggested in the song itself. He well chosen words the Major welcomed the Commissioner, and assured her that the glorious fighting force her illustrious brother had in great measure developed would stand by her, and therefore save many victories ahead.

Gleanings of the Address.

THE COMMISSIONER'S remarks were full of inspiration and counsel. To attempt to give any adequate idea of all she said would be to court utter mockery in the failure to accomplish the task. She made some sweet reference to the Juniors, among whom she had been made, among others, a great blessing. When her farewell was announced in London, a boy six years old wrote her, stating he "was going to do his best for the S. A. in all lands."

"Faith in God must be the secret of our warfare if we would win," was the line the Commissioner followed for a few minutes. One of the greatest blessings we enjoyed was the capacity to trust in Him. This point was driven home by an illustration of the condition of a poor, though intelligent man to whom she spoke at her farewell meeting in London. Being assured that God could save him, he cried out as he sat in his seat, "Oh, that my poor damned soul could believe in God!"

This increased faith in God will be accompanied by increased confidence in ourselves. Confidence to do the things we are called on. As Paul, who did not omit to praise God for what he was able to accomplish, but also had an "I am," so we must have an "I am" in our own hearts, and then with faith in God no circumstance or power shall thwart our purpose to do the work God has given us to do.

The Commissioner prayed, and brought this profitable session to a close.

P. M. SESSION.

"Let me love Thee, Saviour,
Take my heart for ever
Nothing but Thy favor
My soul can satisfy."

This chorus was a fitting key note to the afternoon session. MRS. BRIGADIER MARGETTS' prayer followed up the thought, and gave praise to God for His satisfying grace and ability to keep under any circumstances.

MAJOR FRIEDRICH.

on behalf of the Pacific Province, welcomed the Commissioner. His eloquent remarks were richly expressed, and points were illustrated in the Major's own inimitable style.

ADJUTANT AIKENHEAD

was chosen to represent the Field. She voiced the sentiment of the assembly when she said that the Commissioner had been her ideal of a woman warrior of the S. A.

ENSIGN DODDS

made a good effort on behalf of the firm. Out of eighteen men employed twelve or thirteen have been thoroughly converted, and take a deep interest in their work. The most request that the Commissioner would send along plenty of sheep in the fall closed the Ensign's remarks.

MRS. MAJOR READ.

on behalf of the Rescue officers, testified to her admiration of the Commissioner's character and work. It had been an inspiration to hundreds of our women warriors in every land. The statement that 1,200 girls out of 1,400 had turned out satisfactorily called forth great applause. This number had been received during the four years of Commandant and Mrs. Booth's command.

STAFF-CAPTAIN HORN

was next introduced on behalf of the Trade. The Trade's motto is certainly practical and suggestive—"Trust in God and sell for cash." The remarks which resulted in the worthy T. S. temporary suspension between earth and heaven is for obvious reasons withheld—at any rate for the time being.

MAJOR BENNETT

brought a big parcel of love from the officers to the Commissioner. Many of his officers, on account of the distance, could not be present, hence the burden imposed upon the worthy P. H.

MAJOR SHARP AND CAPTAIN HODDINOTT represented Newfoundland. The former spoke in glowing terms of the work on the island, and the hearty reception awaiting the Commissioner on her visit there.

MAJOR McHILLAN.

in speaking of the Men's Social Work, said the men hailed the Commissioner's advent with delight.

MAJOR HOWELL

championed the Central's interests, and ably so. The Central had passed through the fire as no other Province had. Yet there were not more loyal and devoted Officers and Soldiers to be found in the Territory. Rounds of applause greeted his remarks.

STAFF-CAPTAIN SMEETON

did not represent a great deal in the way of officers, but did in the form of finances. Things were brighter than they had been, still he was inclined to turn to the Commissioner with the words of a well-known prayer, "Lighten our darkness we beseech thee."

ADJUTANT PEASE

says she is not much to look at. Be that as it may, when she speaks you are not long in becoming aware of the fact. In a witty vein she answered some of the "eloquent remarks" of some of the gentlemen speakers of the day, she paid a splendid tribute to the Commissioner's incessant toil, and great love for sinners. For many years she had been at her side, and the example thus set before her had made a great impression upon her own life and character.

STAFF-CAPTAIN MINNICK

was received with cheers. He was much moved by the spirit of love and comradeship he had witnessed the few days he had been in Canada.

Staff-Captain Minnick says, "This is where you'll find us."

ENSIGN RITCHIE

represented the J. S. Work.

ADJUTANT ROBERT.

with Ensign Kerr as interpreter, spoke on behalf of the French Canadian Soldiers in French by the officers mentioned. Adjutant MacAmmond went down like strawberries and cream.

COLONEL JACOBS

avored the Council with a thoroughly practical and spiritual address. The responsibilities and obligations of an S. A. officer to his soldiers, the sinner, and the people coming under his influence, was pointedly dealt with.

THE COMMISSIONER'S WORDS

were fairly drawn in by the three hundred men and women before her, and who were ready for Jesus sake to obey any order she might down hereafter give. Her words poured forth as a stream of inspiration, giving counsel and admonition suited to the occasion. Her reference to the power of the J. S. War showed the concern she felt in this regard. Her statement was backed up by an illustration of what the 14,000 Canadian Soldiers in London alone promised to become, seeing they had imbibed the Army's spirit, and growing up in the spirit of its enthusiasm and aggression.

THE PASSION OF CALVARY

for the salvation of sinners was the line of thought followed by the Commissioner in her concluding remarks. Every heart felt the thrill of inspiration, of enthusiasm, of intense earnestness, of burning love, and were not fruits to follow those earnest loving utterances we think even the angels would be disappointed.

"Don't let disappointments, or sorrow, or trials, or difficulties, or ease, or successes, or the world's smiles rob you of this passion," was an admonition worthy of one occupying the position fraught with such possibilities in the eternal question of the salvation of men. We prophesy the influence of these series of meetings and councils will, in the immediate future, manifest itself in a glorious outbreak of soul-winning time throughout the Territory. Hallelujah!

The Council for Officers and Soldiers (FRIDAY, JUNE 12th, 8 P.M.)

Tide Ripping at the Flood—Ovation to Commandant and Mrs. Booth—Commissioner Eva Booth Thrilling Charge to her Troops—Our Leader Carried Along by Nearly Two Hours by God the Holy Ghost—A Marvellous Climax.

THE evening of Friday, June 12th, was devoted by our dear Commissioner to her soldiers. The officers had revelled in the blessing of the morning and afternoon sessions, but it was the soldiers' innings that night.

The high tide of feeling which had been running like a mountain torrent, caught its gathering right at the commencement and surged up into a boiling maelstrom of enthusiasm when the Commissioner concluded her one hour and three-quarters long charge to her troops, with the "hail down" commenced.

I want to note a few points:

FIRST.—The soldiers are alive to their privileges. Jubilee Hall was choked-black with them. Late comers had to squat down wherever they saw a clear piece of floor.

SECOND.—There is not the shadow of a doubt as to where Commissioner Eva Booth was with her soldiers. She is enthralled in their hearts already; they have given her the full measure of their hearts' love and confidence; they evinced it when they gave her that wildly enthusiastic ovation at the start of the meeting.

THIRD.—The General's heart has been so much nearer to their hearts since the appointment of the present Commissioner took effect. The message abated the VAR CAR and read aloud by the Chief Secretary, evoked an affecting outburst from the men. The love and fidelity which the General asks for his soldiers, given him the cause arrived.

FOURTH.—The Commandant and Mrs. Booth were the means forgotten. The "God bless him" he accorded the General's message, and the feeling which accompanied those expressions, were scarcely exceeded by the response made to the kindly message wired by our late dear leaders.

FIFTH.—The charge to her troops made by the Commissioner is the keyword for the new epoch. Basing her remarks on the record of the transfer of Commissioner Moss' position to Commissioner Joshua, the whole hour became magnetic and thrilling. The love and great event described and brought down to the facts of the last few days. The lessons of the night, focussed down to a few words, which the WAR CRY desires to send as a signal along the line.

BE OF GOOD COURAGE! FORWARD! EVERY PLACE WHICH THE SOLE OF YOUR FOOT SHALL TREAD UPON HAS GOD GIVEN TO YOU.

No wonder, our Commissioner, with her surroundings, was caught in the current and couldn't stop talking, even when her voice gave way. The chorus,

"This is where you'll find us," helped considerably as a safety valve, but the pressure was still too great. Suddenly the Newfoundlander rose, and while the crowd rattled along with

"This is where you'll find us,"

they commenced that peculiar and graceful motion popularly known as a "hail down."

Needless to say, the Newfoundlander was soon in the majority, till at last Commissioner Eva Booth took her first spell in a hail down dance. After that, of course the matter had to be applied, but it took some time to do it.

Oh, it was a climax.—COMPLIN.

THE MODEL S.A. SOLDIER.

Especially Contributed for Salvation Army Soldiers and Converts,
BY BRIGADIER MARGETTS,
Our Chief Officer in West Ontario.

Chapter I.

HIS SPIRITUAL CALIBRE.

OURS is a spiritual war; we therefore need spiritual soldiers, equipped with spiritual weapons, for "we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers." The model soldier has recognized this, and having, by the mercy of God, been convinced of his exceeding sinfulness, has turned to God in true repentance, confession and faith, and received life of conversion, which, at a stroke has transformed him from a worldling into a spiritual man.

That he is "well saved" is evidenced by the realization that his former evil habits are abandoned, his sinful besetments are mastered, and he is possessed with a strong love for God, for prayer, for God's people, and for God's service. "Old things have passed away," and "all things have become new."

HE HAS SET OUT TO DO GOD'S WILL. It may have been with weakness and trembling, and he may make mistakes, but "His will" that he loves and diligently seeks out, until being assured by the power of His nation what that will means, he cheerfully embraces and delights in doing it to the best of his ability.

HE BEARS THE CROSS. Although his flesh may shrink, and he may strongly and frequently be tempted to seek an easier path, and though misunderstood by friends, misrepresented by enemies, opposed by the world, and attacked by the devil, yet he has that something within him which causes him to remember the rugged and thorn-path which his Saviour trod for him, and helps him to cling to and glory in the Cross, following it at all costs.

HE GETS ENTIRELY SANCTIFIED. No mistake is made here. It is experience as clear as noon-day to him; nor is it merely a stronger or more definite method of expressing his testimony that he has adopted, or a more powerful manner of prayer, or praise, that he has borrowed which has made the change so noticeable. He is made clean within and without, in purpose, motive, ambition, and desire, as in deed and practice he is clean, — every wit. His sinful appetites are completely destroyed, the evil conquered because cast out. Like searching, surging, sweeping sea-waves rolling over and through the vessel will cleanse it, even though it be the mightiest Atlantic liner; so the precious cleansing blood of his Saviour has flowed, and still flows, over and through his soul.

"Thought and wish and senses keeping,
Now and every instant clean."

HE IS GOD'S FOR USE. His will is entirely abandoned. Hands and feet, head and heart, brains and body, possessions and position are at his Lord's disposal. He becomes so absorbed in the interests of his Lord's Kingdom, and in matters of little whether he be placed at front or rear, in public or private, in honour or dishonour, so long as he can be of use in the way which pleases God.

HE IS FILLED WITH THE HOLY GHOST. Being cleansed, emptied, the fitness for God, the Holy Ghost to occupy his being and dwell there is afforded, and the "King of Glory" has come in and filled the capacity, sweetening, beautifying, and enriching his experience. The needs of the new-born Christ life—rapidly and surely won, while he exercises sweetest and faithful obedience to the Spirit within him, and the revealed will of God as seen in His Word which he daily peruses in the true spirit of prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving and subjugation.

HE WALKS IN THE SPIRIT, and finds his whole soul and being become inflamed with the divine fires of pity, love and compassion for other poor souls, which fires, as he lives close to God, and fans them by communion with his Lord, and with God's intense to save souls that he feels like David when he said: "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up," or, like Jeremiah's experience when he exclaimed, "Oh, that my head were waters and mine eyes a fountain of tears, for then would I weep day and night for the slain of the daughters of my people."

(To be continued next week.)

Clock House Rescue Home has been opened near the Epping Forest, by Mrs. Bramwell Booth for women.

A NEW TITLE of Lieutenant-Colonel has been created by the General. It is the title between a Brigadier and a Colonel, and the officer in, by courtesy, spoken of as "Colonel."

THE GENERAL has visited Hull and Dewsbury. The first meeting at Hull was given to the children, a characteristic of the General's plan of battle. 240 boys and girls cried for God to save them. The Great Circus, holding 3,500 people, was filled at each Sunday meeting record in these days of war, "I have and unbelief. Sporting and gambling are the twin-Gods of Australia."

Commissioner Ross, from South Africa, has just taken hold of the London Provincial work. God bless our old Canadian Commissioner!

By EMMISON RITCHIE.

JOIN, THE FORE-RUNNER OF CHRIST.

LUKE 1. 39-40.

GOLDEN TEXT.—And the hand of the Lord was with him. Verse 66.

John the Baptist was the forerunner of Jesus. A forerunner was a man who went before royal travellers to announce their approach, so that people could do them homage as they passed. A part of the forerunner's duty was to see that the way was clear to the travellers.

John came to announce the coming of Jesus and to set the minds of the people ready to receive the new King, who was to rule in righteousness. His coming, like the coming of Jesus, was announced by an angel to Zacharias, his father, already an old man. Zacharias doubted the angel-messsage, and to convince him of its truth he became dumb, and was told that he would remain so until the child was born, and called John.

Verse 69. The people wished to follow an old custom, often observed of calling a child after some member of the family.

Verse 60. Do not be afraid to go against the custom of your fathers. God asks you to do so.

Verse 61. The friends of Elizabeth could not understand, just as worldly people can not understand the loadings of God to-day; they look at the outward circumstances.

Verse 62. Zacharias was yet dumb, and they appealed to him by signs, thinking that surely the child would be called after himself.

Verse 63. "His name is John," or, as it was spelled then, "Johanan," meaning "Jehovah is Gracious." "Marvelled." People of the world always wonder when they see the workings of God through His people.

Verse 64. "His mouth was opened." Doubt had sealed the lips of Zacharias, as the mouth shut the mouth and seals the testimony of any man try to be Christians of our time. Faith and obedience loosed his tongue, and "he spake praises to God." Every faith-inspired tongue will do that.

Verse 65. "Fear came." The testimony of Zacharias took off and the people feared God. Does your testimony cause any one to fear God?

Verse 66. "Laid up in their hearts." They were so awed and yet, as they saw God's Word will not return void. Speak it everywhere.

"The hand of the Lord." The hand of God is with the righteous but against the wicked.

Verse 67. "Filled with the Holy Ghost." God wants to fill all His people. If you are a professing Christian and powerless, there is wrong somewhere. The Holy Ghost given power to witness for God, inspires the truest tongue and makes words as arrows tipped with fire.

Verse 68. Study well this beautiful record of the coming of Jesus and His wonderful salvation. How often God has visited us in mercy and love. Have you let Him visit you with His salvation?

Verse 69. "Horn." Something to sound it out, also an emblem of strength.

Verse 71. Our greatest enemies are the sin of our hearts.

Verse 75. "In holiness all our days." God needs men to be holy. It is our privilege to live holy every day.

Verse 77. John preached forgiveness by baptizing unto repentance with water; Jesus forgives sins and baptizes with the Holy Ghost.

Verse 78. The beautiful dawn of Salvation's day on a world lost in darkness.

Verse 79. "Guide." How happy is the person who has Jesus for a guide through all the temptations of life! They have a soul at rest, even in outward turmoil.

Verse 80. "Strong in spirit." How many strong people are weak in spirit and easily overcome; God can make you strong in spirit.

"YOUR FACE DOES shine when you have been with God!"—FIELD COMMISSIONER.

"Courage."

Composed by

The Field Commissioner.

IS it oft thy heart has failed thee? Hast thou many times gone back?
Singer not to count the failures shown along life's stormy track;
If the gathering shadows thicken with the voices of the past,
See! there shines a golden promise o'er the gloomy darkness cast,

Singing, "As I was with Moses, so I'm going to be with thee,"

Singing, "CORRIGES, and with Joshua more than conqueror you shall be!"

Dost thou fear to face the perils and the shot of battle-ground?

Oh, remember, in the furnace Grace sufficient martyrs found!

Hold not back when storms are raging and the enemy is strong:

It is when the Jordan's swelling, Jesus lives to lead us on,

Singing, "As I was with Moses, so I'm going to be with thee,"

Singing, "CORRIGES, and with Joshua more than conqueror you shall be!"

CORRIGES!—let it be our Watchword, as a light to guide along:

Over death's last foaming waters—singing then the conqueror's song—

It will brighten up the valley, it will open wide the Gate;

It will bring us through life's shadows to where shining angels wait,

Singing, "As He was with Moses, so the Lord has been with me!"

Singing, "Jesus' Blood has conquered! Victory!" through eternity.

Farewells from Windsor, N.S.

Fifty at Knee Drill, Two Saved, Thirteen Enrolled During the Last Sunday.

Have at last had to say good-bye to all my dear comrades and friends in Windsor. They have been so kind to us. God bless them! On my farewell Sunday the Lord gave us a glorious finish to our seven or eight months' campaign. About fifty at knee-drill, four out to the holiness meeting, enrolled thirteen (nearly the yellow, red and blue during the afternoon service, and two saved at night. Truly there is nothing half so beautiful as working for Jesus. —ETHEL GALT, Adjt.

NEWSLINGS.

ENSIGN ATTWELL assumes the office of cashier for the C. O. P., as well as J. S. Assistant.

CAPTAIN TURPIN quits counting copiers for the C. O. P., and goes in the Statistical Department.

CAPTAIN KING, of the Toronto Lifeboat, has been appointed to Joe Best's Montreal.

CAPTAIN BALE, one of the nearest penmen of the Temple, occupies the cashier's chair, vacated by Adjutant McMillan.

STAFF CAPTAIN SMEETON, the Comptroller of Finance, makes a flying visit to London, Ont.

CAPTAIN WELSH, better known as "Gypsy" to Londoners, accompanied the Commissioner. She has been nine years in Army work; four as a Field Officer, and live on the personal staff of the Commissioner.

ALL THE CITY TROOPS rallied at the Riverside tent on Monday night. To say it was full and running over is not much, it only holds about seventy-five or one people.

SERGEANT FREEMAN was married at Lippincott to Sergeant Bateman, of Stratford, by Major Howell.

THIS ISSUE is partly set up by the new Sanctuary machine.

CAPTAIN HOWCROFT and Lieutenant Bonnet have bid the Bowers good-bye and take charge of Yorkville.

CAPTAIN WILSON, of Orangeville, and Lieutenant Follett, of Hamilton Ill., go to the Bowers.

THE TEMPLE reports three souls Sunday night, closing at 11 p.m.; the Bowers two; Lippincott one; Richmond Street one for sanctification.

CAPTAIN PEACOCK, of Toronto, takes about fifty WAR CRYS to the jail every week for the prisoners.

MAJOR HOWELL, the genial Central Ontario Provincial Officer, is to be congratulated on his management of the big demonstration. He says "the arrangements worked without a hitch."

OUR OFFICERS are proving their genuine Salvationism. Major Howell says that irrespective of the Province they belonged to, he found them willing and obliging when asked to take up any duty. That's practical.

AT THE Soldiers' Council, Toronto (re-march overboard), "to 35 p.m.—that's one hour and three-quarters the Commissioner has been talking." Then they seemed to lose count.

ADJUTANT CASS, of Chatham, Ont., sold 800 farewell all ribbon badges with Commandant and Mrs. Booth's photo and these words on them:

W. O. P., misaph, Commandant. In principle true. In devotion sure. In loyalty firm.

Typical Salvationist never forgotten.

ENSIGN F. MCKENZIE, Light Brigade Agent, for the N. W. Province, has travelled 7,300 miles since October, and led and assisted in 260 meetings and lantern services. He is now sick abed at Moosomin, N. W. T. Pray for him.

JAMESTOWN CORPS.

A BLOOD AND FIRE LOT OF PEOPLE.

At the time of writing, Jamestown has been opened about four months. Ensign Bob Smith, and Lieutenant Collins formed the attacking party. The first lot of recruits—twenty-one—were enrolled by Adjutant Rawling, six weeks after the opening. "A fine crowd, about the best I ever enrolled in my life," says the Adjutant.

The Mayor attends the meetings, and the people are exceedingly kind, and much "taken up" by the blood and fire spirit of the Army.

Since Adjutant Goodwin has been appointed to the command of the Corps, Jamestown has been made the District Headquarters.

Captain Hurst was a soldier at Nainaimo, British Columbia, and has done good service at a number of Manitoba and North-West Territories Corps.

Lieutenant Collins entered the Field from Grand Forks, and is the first officer sent out by that Corps since the transfer to this Territory.

Adjutant Goodwin's career was written up in the Cry dated the 5th ulto. Jamestown is one of the best Corps in North Dakota, and has the promise of becoming one of the leading Corps in the North-West Province. God bless Jamestown!

NOTES

—ON THE—

Commissioner's Western Welcome Campaign.

BY MAJOR READ.

Westerners should feel thankful that our new Commissioner visits them first, and reckon upon it, they will have some mighty times. Of course it is thoroughly understood long ago that Winnipeg is noted for giving our leaders a triumphant welcome, and they will not be behind with regard to Commissioner Eva. Let the whole city turn out en masse. What a treat the officers will have at the councils, and what spiritual food they will receive! They will certainly return to their corps filled with the Spirit.

Then what can we say with regard to the reception the General's daughter will get in Grand Forks? They did loyally welcome her brother, the Commandant, but "we shall see what we shall see." That North Dakota city will be stirred from centre to circumference. And then the souls that will be saved! Rest assured, ye people of Grand Forks, the Commissioner will not be satisfied unless souls are saved, therefore help her in the battle by praying for her.

Fargo, that great railroad centre, was also to the front in giving our departed leader a splendid welcome. True, it is a new Corps comparatively, but its plucky soldiers and loyal friends will welcome with open arms the hero of a thousand battles. If you want to please and help the Commissioner, then fight, sing, and pray, not only while she is in your midst, but all the time.

Now, ye miners of Helena, Butte, and Spokane, what can we say to you to urge you to make this, the Commissioner's welcome visit to your city, one that shall beat all previous records? You have read of her desperate engagements and renowned victories, but now the heroine comes to you in person to cheer you on in the fight. Lift up her name; pray earnestly for the success of her meetings with you, and you shall never forget what your eyes shall see and your ears hear. You know just how to give Commissioner Eva a loyal welcome.

Then the loyalty of the soldiers and friends of Victoria, Nanaimo, New Westminster, and Vancouver is well known. Have they not perfectly helped us in the past with their finances, being ever ready to do what they could in this respect? They have welcomed many leaders in days gone by, but faith looks ahead, and cries that Commissioner Eva's coming amongst them will top all past records. We know she will feel quite at home among these perfectly happy and desperate fighting people, and when she has heard the last echo of their farewell cheers as she leaves them at Vancouver, only a few days will elapse when Manitobans at Brandon and Portage will shout and literally scream their welcomes, for they well know how to appreciate a visit from such a brave woman as our Commissioner.

Unity of purpose, mighty prevailing prayer, desperate personal fighting, and pure love for souls, must make this series of welcome meetings a never-to-be-forgotten time, so that the whole campaign may be crowned by hundreds of souls crying for mercy. This is the Commissioner's supreme desire. Of course Majors Bennett and Friedrich will be all there on the field of battle.

WINNIPEG'S ICONOCLAST BAND.

Wears a band of soldiers of a peculiar type,
We have a full salvation, and in it we delight;
We're not proud or lazy, as some of you may think,
We don't attend the dancing school, or go to the sinking link.
(Repeat last line.)

Our leaders don't wear feathers to ornament their heads,
Nor have around their fingers, nor gold their
with red;
Our lads don't gamble, smoke, nor chew, nor sport a walking cane,
For we consider those who do, not worthy of our band.

Iconoclast is the name we've given to our band,
And you no doubt, there's many here this name
don't understand;
Just give us your attention, it's meaning we'll explain,
For you'll find out the following verse will make it clear and plain.

With the proper hammer we're smashing idols down, Here and there and everywhere their ruins can be found;
We're bound the devil's kingdom shall never, never stand,
And this is why we call ourselves the Iconoclast
Band.

Major Bennett and his wife are leaders of our band,
The officers of our Province they guide with steady hand;
With Major Oulter by their side the chariot's bound to go,
For dirt, debt, and the devil there now will be no show.

The J. & R. war is booming, greater victories we shall see,
Since Captain Bennett's lot this work has lately been set free,
And soon you'll see the J. & R. right throughout the land,
Carrying on the work begun by the Iconoclast Band.

There's many in this city bless Jesus for the day
When to our House of Heaven they ever found their way,
And heard that blessed message—though far in sin
You're here,
If you will turn to Jesus He'll freely take you in.

May Ensign Smith's endeavors be owned and blessed of God!
Assisted by her Captain, get many to the blood of the cross,
The only way to heaven will have its greatest share
of love,
For all of this will go to help the Winnipeg Rescue
Home.

SALVATION AT SIMCOE.

GIDEON MILLER, D. O., AND D. D., RE-PORTETH THEREON.

About One Hundred Sinners Professed Repentance, but some Lapsed.

JIM JONES FINDS HIS PICTURE IN THE "CRY."

The soul-saving work at Simcoe is going on rapidly. During our stay about one hundred souls professed to be saved, but, sorry to say, a number have come and gone like a door on its hinges; but we thank God for a good number who are still true to God and the Salvation Army.

JIM JONES got saved three months ago.

As Jim Jones used to appear.

He was one of the worst drunks in town. He said one Sunday night in the meeting:

"Friends, you should all buy the War Cry this week, for you will find my photo on the tenth page. There is only a slight mistake in the first name, it should be 'jim' instead of 'John'; but that's me, all right, as I used to be—bottle in hand and hat on my feet.
Thank God, now I'm saved, and have a happy
home."

Jim's wife has also got saved, and they are both striving to bring up their little ones in the way they should go.

BROTHER I. BARKER was another man fond of tobacco and strong drink, which had brought to him much sorrow. He and his wife got saved four months ago, also his brother and wife have found Christ, and are happy in the Army.

SISTER SMITH for some time kept hotel and sold liquor, both to men and women. It was a long time before she would come to the S. A., and she even called the Army the synagogue of Satan; but one day about three months ago called to see and hear for herself. God took hold of her, and that night she got saved; also her daughter, and they are both now fighting in the Army.

EX-CAPTAIN WANKS got saved a few months after we came to Simcoe. Poor lad, he had wandered far from God. He became worse than ever before, and drank liquor to drown his convictions. One night while in that state he came forward and sought God with his heart. The dear Lord took him in. He came out boldly for God. Each day he seemed to rise higher. One month had gone by when God called him suddenly away. He left a bright testimony behind that all was well with his soul.

BROTHER B—— is one of the last converts. At the time of writing he is only a week old. He came last Friday night to meeting intending to get saved, but went away in sin. That night he could not sleep, and at four o'clock in the morning got up and prayed God to save him. His wife, who is a soldier, saw him through all O.K. This man has been one of the worst swearers and quick-tempered men in town, but is greatly changed now, bless God.

There are others who have been low in sin saved during the past winter.

Mrs. Miller and myself have spent ten happy months in this corps and district.

Yours for souls, G. MILLER, D. O.

THE FAREWELL AND WELCOME
meetings were announced in Toronto by a big drum, twelve feet in diameter, drawn on a tory by a team, headed by a brass band.
A large steamer was stretched across Albert street. Captain Lewis was run in by a policeman for shouting on the streets to announce the meetings.

YOUR EYES

Should see Ensign Gravett's photo and article, from India, in next week's Cry.
He was a Toronto H. Q. boy once.

PORT GALES

—FOR—

ALL MEETINGS.

Holiness.

TUNE—Come, brethren, dear: or, Come, from heaven with holy fire. (S. A. M., Vol. I., No. 517; B. B., No. 9.)

1 To victory, Lord, Thy soldiers lead,
And make us Israelites indeed,
Obedient, good, and true;
Salvation is our battle-cry,
We mean to win the fight or die,
Our fighting strength renew.

Thy soldiers with great courage bless,
Impart a holy righteousness
As spotless as the light;
From sin Thy blood has set us free,
And now we've got the victory
We'll shout with all our might.

In us Thy holy image show,
Send us to war white as the snow,
Till every foe is gone;
To us let holy joy be given,
Upon the clean highway to heaven
We'll keep travelling on.

Let every inward foe be slain,
In us revive Thy work again,
And bring to life the dead;
Lord, let a world-wide work be done,
Let every blood-bought soul be won,
Till all to Christ are led.

COLONEL PEARSON.

TUNE—From every sin made clean, B. J. 81.
Come in, my Lord, come in, B. B. 27.
B. J. 46.

2 Jesus, Thy fulness give,
My soul and body cleanse;
Cleanse me from sin that I may live
The life of holiness.
With full salvation might
My heart and mind make strong,
Help me to live and do the right,
And part with all that's wrong.

Give me full joy and peace,
Eternal inward rest;

Lead me to Calvary's holy feast,
There let my soul be blest.
Saved from the power of sin,
Kept by Thy grace secure,
Laid without and all within
Be pure, as Thou art pure.

With goodness make me kind,
Life's hatred crucify;
Make me the image of Thy mind,
All love of self destroy.
Thou only know'st the worth
Of sinless blessings given:
The life of perfect love on earth
Is holiness and heaven.

—102—

Special.

TUNE—Shout aloud salvation, boys. (B. J. No. 2; Salvation Music, Vol. II., No. 46.)

3 Oh, what a mighty power is faith!
What wonders it hath wrought!
Its brilliant deeds have brightest shone
Where men of faith have fought.
And many a time we felt the power
That prayer and faith have brought—
There's power to be got by believing.

CHORUS.

There's power, there's power for all who will believe,
There's power, there's power more mighty than the sea,
There's power divine for all who will the Holy Ghost receive,
There's power to be got by believing.

Strong faith secures eternal life,
Faith conquers fear and sin,
Faith justifies and sanctifies,
Faith lives with Christ within;
Faith fights and drives the stubborn foe,
And will the battle win—
There's power to be got by believing.

Faith works to do the will of God,
Faith marches through the sea,
Faith dares to live and do the right,
Faith fights for liberty;
Faith shifts the walls of Jericho,
And will have victory—
There's power to be got by believing.

Faith is the giant-kill of heaven,
The life of all that's good,
And ruler of the lion's den,
Master of flame and flood,
The confidence of Calvary,
The strength of fire and blood—
There's power to be got by believing.

COLONEL PEARSON.

THE COMMISSIONER'S NEW CHORUS, "This is Where You'll Find Us."

This is where you'll find us, This is where we are, In the great S. A. That led us when astray, Into the narrow way, and taught us how to pray, This is where you'll find us, This is where we are, Early singing on we mean to stay TUNE—There is a better world, they say, B. J. 11, 3; Christ for me, B. B., 48; What's the news? B. J., 12.

4 Poor sinner, come to Jesus now,
Come away, come away!
For thee the cleansing stream doth flow,
Come away, come away!
Though vile and black thy past has been,
His precious blood can make you clean,
In Christ your only hope is seen,
Come away, come away!

Oh, hear His tender, pleading voice,
Come away, come away!
He'll bid your drooping soul rejoice,
Come away, come away!
For you His precious life He gave,
For you He triumphed o'er the grave,
And now He lives your soul to save,
Come away, come away!

His precious blood doth now atone,
Come away, come away!
He'll take away that heart of stone,
Come away, come away!
If on the verge of dark despair,
Sin from your heart this power can tear,
Now, cast on Him your sin and care,
Come away, come away!

TUNE—I know of a Saviour from sin.

5 'Twas Jesus who came down from heaven
And gave up His life on the tree,
'Twas Jesus who opened a fountain
Of cleansing for you and for me:
'Twas Jesus despised and rejected—
A man full of sorrow and grief;
'Twas Jesus they led to the gallows,
And now there is cleansing for thee.

CHORUS.

I know there is cleansing for thee,
I know there is cleansing for thee;
In the blood of my blessed Redeemer
I know there is cleansing for thee.

'Twas Jesus, oppressed and afflicted,
Who bore all the mocking and shame;
'Twas Jesus cried, "Father, forgive them;
They know not by Me that they live."
'Twas Jesus, the world's blest Redeemer,
Who suffered the nails, thorns and spear,
'Twas Jesus who cried, "It is finished,"
And now there is cleansing for thee.

'Tis Jesus, poor sinner, 'tis Jesus
That's bidding you come unto Him;
'Tis Jesus, poor wanderer, 'tis Jesus
That's calling you now to come home.
'Tis Jesus whose heart is now yearning
With love and compassion for thee,
'Tis Jesus that's waiting to save thee,
Oh, come and accept Him to-day.

STAFF-CAPTAIN GAGE.

The Cleansing Stream.

TUNE—Beneath land.

6 Once I was full of sin and woe,
And yet would not to Jesus go;
But still preferred the path of sin,
Till Jesus' voice I heard within.

It's Weel wi' my Soul.

BY LIEUT. BALLARD.

TUNE—Barrin' o' the door.

7 I wanst was on the downward road,
An' served the deil weel, o';
But Jesus Christ, the Son o' God,
Hias saved my soul from hell, o'.

CHORUS.

It is weel wi me soul,
It is weel, weel, weel;
It is weel wi me soul—a' weel.

An' noo I live a' God alane,
I serve Him ivry day, o';
The precious bluid o' Jesus Christ
Hias washed me sins awee, o'.

Oh, sinner, if ye'll coom to God,
He'll pardon ivry sin, o';
Oh, coom just now, He waits ta save,
I ken He'll tak ye in, o'.

SECOND CHORUS.

Is it weel wi your soul?
Is it weel, weel, weel?

Is it weel wi your soul—a' weel?
(As sung at the "Oh-fashioned Scotch supper" at Saul's Ste. Marie.)

North Dakota Advances.

A FEW UP-TO-DATE FACTS OF THE ADVANCE
IN THE GLORIOUS WEST.

BY THE ASSISTANT EDITOR.

MAJOR BENNETT, the Provincial Secretary of the North-West Province, on his way down from Winnipeg, visited Selkirk and Rat Portage. He crossed the great lakes by the C.P.R.'s steamer, landing at Owen Sound, where he did a meeting in the Central Ontario Province.

The soldiers and recruits in his Province number 1196. Eleven new corps have been opened on the U. S. side since the transfer of North Dakota to his command, a little over a year ago, and he proposes to open Dickinson and Lisbon as corps as soon as officers can be had. Langdon will also be opened as a circle corps. Forty new officers have been raised since the Major has been in the North-West, and his cry is for more. Captain Guiney, of Rat Portage, is the latest arrival from England.

Ensign Sarah Smith, of the Winnipeg Rescue Home, and Captain Emma Gooding, of Fargo, North Dakota, have been attending the "big go."

Captain Thomas, lately on furlough in Ontario, has just taken charge of Brandon corps.
